THEME OF WORSHIP

Friendship

If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up! Ecclesiastes 4:10 (NIV)

"The warmth of true friendship, the love that binds heart to heart, is a foretaste of the joys of heaven." MH 360.2

After David had finished talking with Saul, Jonathan became one in spirit with David, and he loved him as himself. 1 Samuel 18:1

Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, for we have sworn friendship with each other in the name of the Lord, saying, 'The Lord is witness between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants forever.'" 1 Samuel 20:42

The friendship of Jonathan for David was . . . of God's providence, to preserve the life of the future ruler of Israel.

At this time, when there were so few bright spots in the path of David, he was rejoiced to receive an unexpected visit from Jonathan, who had learned the place of his refuge. Precious were the moments which these two friends passed in each other's society. They related their varied experiences, and Jonathan strengthened the heart of David, saying, "Fear not! for the hand of Saul my father shall not find thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul my father knoweth." As they talked of the wonderful dealings of God with David, the hunted fugitive was greatly encouraged. "And they two made a covenant before the Lord: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house."

After the visit of Jonathan, David encouraged his soul with songs of praise, accompanying his voice with his harp.

Jonathan, by birth heir to the throne, yet knowing himself set aside by the divine decree; to his rival the most tender and faithful of friends, shielding David's life at the peril of his own; steadfast at his father's side through the dark days of his declining power, and at his side falling at the last--the name of Jonathan is treasured in heaven, and it stands on earth a witness to the existence and the power of unselfish love. - From My Life Today - Page 215

We have a friend in Jesus, who has given us the most marked evidence of His love, and who is able and willing to give life and salvation to all who come unto Him....

Health Nugget Water Intake

My soul is healthy because I have been drinking each day of the water of life. Christ is this living water (John 4:10 and 7:37, 38).

Law of Physical Health: Sufficient water each day is necessary for a healthy body.¹

Action Plan: Each morning, the very first thing that should enter my body is a glass of pure water. I'll connect this habit with starting each day in a brief meditation on Christ, the Living Water. I'll see whether I become more conscious about my daily intake of approximately 64 ounces of water, as my mind dwells on spiritual water throughout the day. Could this be a way to empower health of my body inspired by health of my soul?
