Into All the World with Mark Finley. For 45 years I've been on a journey with Jesus in ministry. My travels have taken me to nearly 100 countries, and to every continent except Antarctica. I've preached in small country churches and huge city stadiums; in the open air in Ghana, drenched with rain; in 115° F blazing heat in India; in frigid -20° F temperatures in China; and under the starlit skies of Nigeria with hundreds of flying insects buzzing around my head. During this amazing adventure in faith, I've seen God do spectacular things. The Holy Spirit has worked powerfully, and I want to share these miracles with you. In my new blog, Into All the World, I'll openly discuss my own spiritual journey. Sign up at intoalltheworld.com.

THEME OF WORSHIP

Jesus is Our Victory Over Sin

Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it.

Hebrews 4:1

It happens nearly every semester. I tell my freshman college writing class often that they need to keep up with the numerous writing assignments in order to pass the class. But nearly every semester some don’t believe me. They’re the ones who send me frantic emails after the last day of class and give me their reasons for not taking care of business. I hate to do it, but I have to tell them, “I’m sorry. It’s too late. You have failed the class.”

That’s bad enough when you’re a college freshman and you realize you’ve just wasted a couple thousand dollars. But there is a far more serious, more permanent finality that comes at the end of life if people haven’t taken care of business with God about their sin. In those cases, if people die without having put their faith in Jesus Christ as Savior, they face an eternity without Him.

What a terrible moment it would be to stand before the Savior Himself and hear Him say, “I never knew you; depart from Me!” (Matt. 7:23). The author of Hebrews warns us to make sure we don’t “come short” (4:1) of the eternal rest offered by God. The good news is that it’s not too late. Today Jesus freely offers to us salvation and forgiveness through Him.

- Dave Branon, Our Daily Bread

Calvary reveals the seriousness of our sin and the vastness of God’s love.
