Theme of Worship

Tearing Down Walls and Building Bridges

Is the gospel about building walls? Or bridges? Does religion divide? Or do we grasp that we are all truly sons and daughters of the king? And what impact does our understanding have on how we conduct ourselves in our communities? How do we live out the gospel outside the walls of our church? Is religion confined to a few hours Sabbath morning, or does the gospel permeate our relationships, individually and as a community?
