

Church Life

Welcome to the West Covina Hills SDA Church Family!

We pray you will hear God speak to you through various ways and through His people. If you don't have a church home we would love to have you consider making us your church home. Guests and members please share with us your presence and any other information on the Communication Card in the pews and place them in the offering plate, thank you!

We also have wireless services for the hearing impaired.

Please see a Deacon for assistance.

WEST COVINA HILLS SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

WELCOMES YOU 2015 THE YEAR OF PERSONAL EVANGELISM

MARCH 28, 2015

Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.
I Thessalonians 5:16-18

"Prayer is the key in the hand of faith to unlock heaven's storehouse, where are treasured the boundless resources of Omnipotence." SC, pp. 94,95

Mission Statement

"Christ's method alone will give true success in reaching the people. The Saviour mingled with men as one who desired their good. He showed His sympathy for them, ministered to their needs, and won their confidence. Then He bade them, 'Follow Me.'" MH p143

Theme of Worship

God Had Other Plans

A man's heart plans his way, but the LORD directs his steps.
Proverbs 16:9

My friend Linda grew up planning to become a medical missionary. She loves the Lord and wanted to serve Him as a doctor by taking the gospel to sick people in parts of the world where medical care is hard to find. But God had other plans. Linda has indeed become a medical missionary, but not the way she expected.

At age 14, Linda developed a chronic health problem that required her to be hospitalized for major surgery several times a year. She survived bacterial meningitis that left her in a coma for 2 weeks and blind for 6 months. She once celebrated two birthdays in a row in the hospital — without going home in between. She has had several experiences when she was not expected to live. But yet Linda is the most vibrant, grateful, and cheerful person you will ever meet. She once told me that her mission field, as she hoped and planned, is the hospital. But instead of serving God as a doctor, she serves Him as a patient. No matter how sick she is, the light of the Lord radiates from her.

Linda exemplifies the teaching of the apostle Peter. Despite her trials, she rejoices, and the genuineness of her faith brings "praise, honor, and glory" to Jesus Christ (1 Peter 1:6-7). ~ Julie Ackerman Link

Lord, I'm so thankful that no matter where we are, we can serve You. Help me to reflect Your image in my current situation, even if it's not where I hoped I would be.

10 ways to get your kids out in nature

According to Richard Louv, 2008 Audubon Medal Recipient and author of Last Child in the Woods, kids today are becoming more and more removed from nature, at the expense of their own psychological and physical well being. Children are spending more time in structured activities and on electronic devices, leaving little time for unstructured play in nature.

1. Inspire curiosity by being curious yourself
2. Simply be in nature with no other distractions
3. Limit electronic devices while commuting
4. Seek out natural, untouched spaces and return often to them
5. Make time for unstructured outdoor play
6. Stop thinking about nature time as leisure time
7. Read about nature with your child
8. Plant a small garden
9. Look at the stars
10. Get organized
