Theme of Worship

Building a Bridge

Your faith toward God has gone out, so that we do not need to say anything.

1 Thessalonians 1:8

James Michener's Centennial is a fictional account of the history and settlement of the American West. Through the eyes of a French-Canadian trader named Pasquinel, Michener converges the stories of the Arapaho of the Great Plain and the European-based community of St. Louis. As this rugged adventurer moves between the growing clutter of the city and the wide-open spaces of the plains, he becomes a bridge between the two drastically different worlds.

Followers of Christ also have the opportunity to build bridges between two very different worlds— those who know and follow Jesus and those who do not know Him. Early Christians in Thessalonica had been building bridges to their idol-worshipping culture, so Paul said of them, "For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth, (1Thess.1:8). The bridge they were building had two components: the "word of the Lord" and the example of their faith. It was clear to everyone that they had "turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God" (v.9).

As God declares Himself to those around us by His Word and through our lives, we can become a bridge to those who do not yet know the love of Christ.

Bill Crowder, Our Daily Bread

Live the gospel, and others will listen.

June 27— Call to Prayer, with a gathering at the Vallejo Drive Church from 3:00—6:00 p.m. This gathering will be in support of the NAD/University churches' initiative, inviting our pastors, members and leaders to come together in prayer and fasting for unity at the General Conference Session and beyond. Sponsored by the Prayer, Spirituality and Renewal Team. Info: 310-963-2578.

Health Nugget

Human Performance Integrity

Human performance integrity is what gave Daniel and his three friends an incredible evaluation. They chose to live each day in such a way as to maintain their optimal, God-given performance—physically, mentally, emotionally, socially, and spiritually.

Here are some simple ways you, too, can optimize your HPI:

- Place your trust implicitly in God.
- Choose a healthy diet.
- Get 30 to 60 minutes of physical activity every day.
- Drink sufficient water.
- Sleep at least eight hours per night.
- Live a temperate life, avoiding toxic substances and using the good things in moderation.
- Get adequate exposure to sunshine.
- Breathe pure air.
- Serve those in need.

How is your HPI today?
