Theme of Worship

What you leave behind is not what is engraved in stone monuments, but what is woven into the lives of others. —Pericles

God calls big trees out of small seeds, so He prepares great monuments out of small minds. He will definitely call those wonderful things he put in you out of you. When He begins, do not resist! - Israelmore Ayivor

Monuments may be built to express the affection or pride of friends, or to display their wealth, but they are only valuable to the characters which they perpetuate. - James Abram Garfield

Monuments are the grappling-irons that bind one generation to another. - Joseph Joubert

Live a life as a monument to your soul. - Ayn Rand

Your deeds are your monuments. - R.J. Palacio

Football Teams Lose, Fans Pig Out on Fatty Foods

Here's an interesting way to illustrate how we deal with life's sadness and disappointment by turning somewhere else besides the Living God — in this case, to food. A recent study showed that when participants' favorite NFL team lost a game, saturated-fat consumption increased by as much as 28 percent following defeats and decreased by 16 percent following victories. Guess which team's fans pigged out the most? Sorry, Pittsburgh Steelers fans, you're ranked # 1. A co-author of the study said, "When people feel their identity is threatened, they compensate by eating indulgent food. It's more difficult to resist temptation. No one ate broccoli after a defeat." Previous studies have linked sports defeats to spikes in alcohol-related crimes, domestic violence, and heart attacks. Apparently football fans need to lighten up—and maybe put their trust in God rather than their favorite team's success.
