THEME OF WORSHIP

Under Intensive Care

Well you have to be there to really understand the wonder of Chinese fast food. I mean it is really fast . . . It makes McDonalds look like the tortoise and it beats all other restaurants with its blazing fast service.

Let me run down the process for you.

If you are on a tour bus, the Chinese guide has already chosen the place to eat long before the day has arrived. She has ordered the food, the approximate time of arrival has already been set and everything is in readiness.

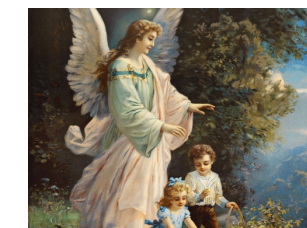

As we approach the restaurant, our tour guide calls to let them know we are coming. As we get out of the bus, there is a person at the front door with a cell phone and she confirms our arrival to the kitchen and waiters.

By the time we are escorted to the table, the food is almost ready to be served. We sit down, say our grace and here it comes, like a neatly timed ocean wave, a cascade of steaming hot dishes. Instant gratification never tasted so good.

If our eyes were opened just now, we would see a host of angels standing to serve the children of men at lightning speed. For the Bible says "are not all angels ministering spirits to serve those who will inherit salvation" (Hebrews 1:12)?

If the Chinese are so anxious for you to get your food, just imagine how much more our heavenly Father above is anxious to minister to us? Even while you slept, your angel has been busy, lining up the blessings of God just for you, just for this special day.

Do you have a hunger in your soul today? Have faith! . . . The food has already been ordered. It has already been prepared and it will come in abundance just at the moment we need it. Let us therefore trust and thank our kind heavenly Father above and the angels whose total focus today and everyday is to minister to all our needs. ~ Pastor Jim Park, PhD

CELEBRATE Wholeness and Health

Simple steps lead to amazing results!

I NTTEGRITY— the key to a clear conscience, sound relationships, and the soft pillow of "no regrets." It is an essential factor in the prescription for the vital and exuberant celebration of health.

O PTIMISM— improves the mood, is based on hope, and positively influences immunity. Optimists may have peace and even joy when things do not turn out the way they wanted. By exercising the choice to be optimistic, we can enjoy wholeness even in our human brokenness.
