Theme of Worship

Our Speaker

Heidi Carpenter began a real relationship with Jesus at the age of 16. After getting involved in ministry, she went to SOULS West, Pacific Union’s School of Evangelism. Since graduation, she has worked as a Bible worker and the Associate Director of Literature Ministries for the Central California Conference. Currently, Heidi serves as the Literature Ministries Director for the Southern California Conference and has completed her BS in Business Management. She is happily married to Andrew Carpenter, Bible teacher at San Gabriel Academy. She loves ministry of all kinds, meeting new people, and seeing God work through His church.

Revelation 17:14 (NKJV)

These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for He is Lord of lords and King of kings; and those who are with Him are called, chosen, and faithful.

Health Tips for the New Year

Tip # 7

Volunteer

We tend to think our own bliss relies on bettering ourselves, but our happiness also increases when we help others, says Peter Kanaris, PhD, coordinator of public education for the New York State Psychological Association. And guess what? Happiness is good for your health. A 2010 study found that people with positive emotions were about 20% less likely than their gloomier peers to have a heart attack or develop heart disease. Other research suggests that positive emotions can make people more resilient and resourceful. “Someone who makes this sort of resolution is likely to obtain a tremendous personal benefit in the happiness department,” Kanaris says.
