Theme of Worship

44 For I am the Lord your God. Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. You shall not defile yourselves with any swarming thing that crawls on the ground. 45 For I am the Lord who brought you up out of the land of Egypt to be your God. You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy."
Leviticus 11:44-45 (ESV)

Health Nugget

We've all done it. It's late at night, and the munchies are upon us. It may be because we didn't get much to eat during the day, or because we want comfort, or because we're with friends. The siren call of food is upon us, and because it's late, our defenses are down. In an ideal world, we would all eat supper at least three hours before bedtime. The world is not ideal. Stuff happens, and sometimes we have to eat late.

Since the timing isn't ideal, we must be more selective in choosing food late at night than at any other time of day. Those delicious deep fried mushrooms and zucchini fries from Legends will come back to haunt you the next day. Spicy, oily foods and heavy dairy will affect you more at night in the form of acid reflux (or worse) or mucus than they would at any other time of day. Worse, they disturb your much-needed sleep.

So what can you eat safely late at night? My mother told me you can safely eat as many veggies at night as you wish. I would add this: only if they're not deep-fried. A light sandwich or salad will do.
