

ORDER OF SERVICE - April 19, 2025

1. Welcome and Announcements: Pastor Jillian Lutes
 - a. Lamb's Offering (children collect)
 - b. Prayer for Offering

RESURRECTION SERVICE: "A Living Sacrifice"

2. Part 1: His Birth and Childhood
Jesus was not born among kings but He proved to be the king of all kings. Raised as the son of a carpenter, he was a peacemaker filled with wisdom and truth. With his baptism, God's plan was continued its course towards our Salvation.

Segue: His life was a living love letter to us all. Then - he signed it in red.
"Written in Red" - Signing by Jo Davis
3. Part 2: His Work and Ministry
Jesus lived a life as an example to others and performed miracles as a sign that he was divine. Many agreed that "Surely, this was the promised Messiah!" Crowds followed as they witnessed him restore sight to the blind, cure the sick, heal the lame and even raise the dead to life.
- "Walking Through Fire" by Ernie Haase and Signature Sound
4. Part 3: His Arrest, Death and Resurrection
Jesus went to Gethsemane to pray to his Father with some of his disciples. There he was arrested and then beaten before being led through the streets to a jeering mob. However, it is through those stripes we are healed and with his resurrection that death would have no sting.
- "Ten Thousand Angels" – Cindy Mandujano and Rolánd Manier
- "Rise Again" – Bianca Botello, Alyssa Rumbaoa and Megan Walker
- "Then Came the Morning" – Morris Sianturi, Yodi Huliselan, Edwin Rumbaoa, Genemar Porsona, Jonathan De Leon and Jonathan Peninoy
- "I've Just Seen Jesus" – Casey Hughes
5. Finale: He Will Come Again!
Christ's everlasting love is offered as a comfort for everyone today! No matter what your problem may be, we can present them to him at the Cross. His final act of triumph will involve us all as he will come again in the clouds of glory!
- "He Looked Beyond My Fault" – Erica Beaumont, Riris Huliselan, Yodi Huliselan, Edwin Rumbaoa, Harry Walker, and Jenne Walker
